

Kenoshan Takes Bride to Delavan

Wedding Ceremony Read
Saturday in Racine Church

In a ceremony read in St. Lucy's church, Racine the morning of November 16, Miss Yolanda Aiello, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Salvatore Aiello of Racine, and Philip Pierangeli, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ladislao Pierangeli, 5105 Twenty-second avenue, were united in marriage.

The bride's gown of white taffeta had a lover's knot neckline and Queen Elizabeth sleeves. Her full-length veil of white net was held with a crown of leaves covered with seed pearls. Her shower bouquet was of white roses and gardenias.

Miss Angeline Cristiano as maid of honor wore a blue taffeta gown with sweetheart neckline, and a pink tiara and pink shoes. Her bouquet was of roses and pompons. Bridesmaids were also Racine girls, Miss Mary Demarco, Miss Mary Chiappetta, and Miss Luliann Wernozz. Their dresses were of pink taffeta and their accessories blue. They carried bouquets of Johanna Hill roses and sweet peas.

Reception in Roma Hall

Joe Inesenio of Highwood, Ill. served as best man for Mr. Pierangeli and his other attendants were Dino Pierangeli and Mario Pedicone of Kenosha and Ernst Madarino of Chicago.

Wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents and dinner at noon in Roma hall Racine. In the evening a reception was held there for about 400 guests.

The newlyweds will be at home on November 21 at 221 North Fifth street, Delavan, Wis., following a brief honeymoon.
