

Kenoshan Takes Chicago Girl as Bride Sunday

In a ceremony read at 3 o'clock the afternoon of September 15 in St. Francis Xavier church, Chicago, before a large group of friends and relatives, Miss Lorraine Doretti, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel Doretti of Chicago, and Gino Pierangeli, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ladislao Pierangeli, 5105 Twenty-second avenue, were united in marriage.

The bride's gown was of white slipper satin inserted with lace and fashioned with a long train and puffed sleeves. Her fingertip veil and blusher were held with a high crown. She carried lilies of the valley and white roses.

Miss Delva Doretti, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Miss Clelia Pierangeli, sister of the bridegroom, was her bridesmaid. Their gowns were of taffeta with sweetheart necklines and puffed sleeves and they wore tiaras of matching color, Miss Doretti's in medium blue and Miss Pierangeli's light blue. Each held a bouquet of roses.

Philip Pierangeli served as best man for his brother, and Edward Doretti, brother of the bride, was groomsman.

Gabriel Doretti presented his daughter in marriage.

A reception was held at the Avondale hall, Diversey avenue, Chicago, attended by approximately 200 guests. Relatives and friends from Cicero, Ill., and Kenosha and Racine were present.

After a honeymoon to an unrevealed destination the couple will reside at 2745 North Mozart street, Chicago.
