CROWNED MOTHER—Mrs. Ladislao Pierangeli was crowned mother of the year Sunday at the annual Italian-American auxiliary ceremony. Mrs. Frank Pulera, president, performed the crowning.

Mrs. Pierangeli Crowned 'Mother'

Mrs. Ladislao Pierangli was crowned "mother of the year" in a colorful ceremony last evening at the Italian-American hall. Over 400 members and guests were present for the crowning and the pot-luck supper which preceded it.

Jennie Ann Hellstern, carrying a white satin pillow on which rested the crown, led the court of honor. Eight young women carrying roses which were presented to Mrs. Pierangeli included six members of Mrs. Pierangeli's family. They were Miss Clelia and Irma Pierangeli, and the Mmes. Philip, Gino, Dino and Eligio Pierangeli. The others in the court were Miss Marie Ruffalo and Miss Rose Marie Orricco.

Mrs. Pierangeli was presented with a corsage and gift by Mrs. Josephine Fumo for the auxiliary. A poem, "Mother," was read by Mrs. Pulera, the president. Miss Rita Rosselli, program chairman, presented Miss Barbara Schneider, vocalist, who was accompanied by Miss Barbara Barnes. The grand march was led by Mrs. Pierangeli and her husband. Dancing followed to the music of Gertrude Studee's orchestra.
