

https://www.newspapers.com/image/597280059/still

Mrs. P. Pierangeli A Kenosha woman former until Mrs. Pasquina Pierangeli, 74, rammed the Hy. 4 he married 5105 22nd Ave., died early Sun- the Hy. 4 a Holmes, day morning at St. Catherine's Western a death on Hospital following a sudden ill- Saturday

g. 21, 1929, ness. condition

Katherine She was born Aug. 3, 1893, in pital this led him in Massa Macinaio, Provence of She is ived by a the late Mr. and Mrs. Adolfo 31, 800 V

Wade, and Rossini. She spent her early fered sk

. I. (Cora) years in Italy. She came to this injuries ed (Edna) country and settled in Kenosha box car s. Clifford in 1909. stopped.

, all of Ke- On Sept. 9, 1914, she married The tr ved by 11 LaDislao Pierangeli, who pre- puties t 32 great- ceded her in death Aug. 10, the cross n death by assisted her husband in the the time

. Wade, on operation of the Pierangeli Mar- Kugler v

Ralph H. ket on 51st St. and 22nd Ave. 43 at the ease Mrs. Pierangeli was a mem- Richa ber of Holy Rosary Church, the 5th Av parish Altar Society and the school s

Doornath

Italian American Ladies Auxili- to part

ary. Science

Surviving are four sons, Phil- Science ip of Racine, and Gino, Dino Starti and Eligio, all of Kenosha, and continui two daughters, Mrs. Peter the Un (Clelia) Renzoni and Mrs. Paul bana c

(Irma) Ferraro, both of Ke- mathem nosha. clude

Additional survivors include the or 26 grandchildren and two great- formati grandchildren. in cour

She was preceded in death by ty men a son, Clelio, a daughter, Irma ..

Rose; three sisters, Mrs. ..

Amalia Potenziani, Mrs. Car- ..

mella Brunati and Mrs. Ada ..

Clementi; and a brother, Peter ..

Rossini. ..

ber of the