

Irma Pierangeli Is Paul Ferraro's Bride

Rites at 9 o'clock Saturday morning joined in marriage Miss Irma C. Pierangeli and Paul J. Ferraro. The ceremony, held at Holy Rosary Catholic church, was performed by the Rev. Valentine Kellner before an altar banked with floral arrangements. Joseph Cravotta, wedding soloist, was accompanied by Mrs. James Del Conte at the organ.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ladislao Pierangeli, 5105 22nd Ave., the bride appeared in a floor-length frock of imported rhinestoned Italian lace and nylon tulle over satin. Dolman sleeves and a drop yoke accented the gown's fitted bodice. Lace-covered tiers of nylon tulle fashioned the bouffant skirt. A crown, studded with rhinestones and pearls, caught her fingertip illusion veil. She carried a bouquet of white roses and glamelias and was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Clelia Pierangeli was maid of honor for her sister. She was attired in a yellow strapless ballerina-length gown of lace over tiers of nylon tulle ruffles. Her attire was complete with a matching jacket and arrangement of yellow roses and purple glamelias.

In identical ensembles were bridesmaids Miss Geraldine Ferraro and Miss Mary Jane Ferraro, sisters of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Eligio Pierangeli, the bride's sister-in-law. The bride's nieces, Patricia Lee Pierangeli and Darlene Pierangeli, wore similar frocks.

Sam Ferraro Jr., was best man for his brother, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ferraro, 1617 69th St. James Angelici, cousin of the bride; Eligio Pierangeli, brother of the bride, and Elmer Herzog were groomsmen.

The Racine home of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Pierangeli was the scene of the wedding breakfast. A dinner, and later a reception for 800 guests was held at the Italian-American club. The couple will live at 2409 53rd St. The bride is employed at Korf's Sixth Avenue and the bridegroom manages the Stanley Shoe Store.
