Pierangeli-Renzoni

At an altar decorated with gladioli, Miss Clelia Pierangeli and Peter J. Renzoni were married in a lovely ceremony at Holy Rosary church Monday morning at 9 o'clock. The Rev. Valentine Kellner officiated. The church choir assisted by Mrs. James Del Conte, organist, provided the music.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ladislao Pierangeli, 5105 22nd Ave., and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Renzoni, 2300 56th St.

A candlelight satin gown was the bride's choice. It featured a bodice of imported Italian Louison lace, studded with seed pearls in diamonds, a scalloped V neckline, and a waist-gathered skirt ending in a wide train. She wore a queen's crown, and carried a cascade of roses and carnations. Her father gave her in marriage.

Mrs. Paul Ferraro, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a cotillion blue, ballerina length gown, styled with a shirred strapless bodice and a full skirt decorated with handkerchief points and velvet puffs. Mrs. Ferraro carried a cascade arrangement of yellow roses and yellow carnations. Miss Felicia Aceto and Miss Ann Renzoni, cousin of the bridegroom were the attendants. They, and the flower girl, Miss Mary Jo Renzoni, niece of the bridegroom, wore ensembles like that of the matron of honor's.

Nello Pinzi was the best man. Dino Curi and Ralph Pallamolla were groomsmen, and Philip Anthony Pierangeli, nephew of the bride, was the ring bearer.

Following the wedding ceremony, breakfast and dinner were served at the Italian-American clubhouse. Close to 1,000 persons were invited to the reception, held at the Italian-American club. The couple will reside at 5530 23rd Ave., after their honeymoon trip through Wisconsin.

The bride, a graduate of Kenosha high school, is a clerk at the Pierangeli and Son grocery store and the bridegroom is a Simmons employe.
